Qat3	VS	صنع في مصر
Typically offer a smaller, curated selection focused on local brands, products relevant to the region, and the most important value that we provide Products that are not boycotted, and we warn about products that are under the boycott framework	Selection	Focuses specifically on promoting and selling products made in Egypt, potentially limiting selection but ensuring all products originate from the country.
Prices may be more competitive for smaller quantities, especially considering potential import duties and shipping costs from صنع في مصر. Additionally, Qat3 may offer promotions and discounts specific to your region.	Price	Aims to support Egyptian businesses and potentially offer products at competitive prices, although direct comparisons might be difficult due to the specific focus on locally made goods.
Generally offer faster delivery times, especially for local products, as they don't involve international shipping processes.	Delivery	Delivery times might depend on the specific seller and their location within Egypt. Since they focus on local products, delivery times within the country are likely comparable to other local websites.
we provide more personalized customer service, with easier communication and potentially faster resolution of any issues.	Customer service	Customer service experience might depend on the specific sellers featured on the platform. It's crucial to check individual seller policies and reviews for an accurate picture.
